

Dear Santa,

I have been a very _____ child this year. When my baby brother pulled my hair, I did not _____ him. When my mother made (verb)
(adjective)

_____ for dinner, I did not complain. I ate it with a smile on my (type of food)

_____. And my room is very _____. My mother (part of the body) (adjective)

says I am turning into a very _____ person. As for the things I want...
(adjective)

I would like a shiny new _____ with _____ (noun) (adjective)

wheels, and a brand new box of _____. For my bedroom, I (noun)

could use a new _____ because my old one is getting too (noun)

_____. I have started a collection of _____.
(adjective) (plural noun)

I have _____ of them! But I would still like another. Make it extra (number)

_____! I hope that you will give me all of these things because I (adjective)

been very _____ and _____ this (adjective) (adjective)

year. If you don't, I will have to tell _____ that you aren't (name of person in room)

_____!
(adjective)

Yours Truly,

(name of another person in room)